For More Information

Trolley service is available to all persons without regard to race, color or national origin. Passengers, including those with disabilities, have the right to file a complaint against Gadsden Transportation Services without fear of retaliation. Such passengers can continue to use the trolley service while their complaint is being investigated. The passenger should request a complaint form from the vehicle operator. If a form is not available, the passenger can obtain a complaint form by calling the Transportation Manager at 256-549-4519.
